REFUGEES COMPLAIN.

Were Put Off the Lawrence-An Explanation.

Mr. Pelequin, wife and child, with several other refugees from Galveston, complained very bitterly yesterday because rence by the soldiers because they did not have the money to pay 12 apiece to House to Mallery line at Galvesion.

It is necessary that before boarding the boat a ticket be secured, otherwise the rush to get on board would swamp the vessel. Persons unable to procure tickets on account of lack of money, it is said, can secure them free by applying to the Galveston relief committee, at least this was the information given The Post reporter at this end of the line.

The city sheds are standing the ship docks are now ready for his in orders are saidly and sold the steamer Commit is a said, can secure them free by applying to the Galveston relief committee, at least this was the information given The Post reporter at this end of the line.
